ALERT EMERGENCY CHILDCARE FIRST AID

This fun and interactive 8 hour course trains people how to react and improvise when dealing with time priority, life threatening emergencies. This course includes initial assessment, disease prevention, secondary survey, airway obstruction, adult, child and infant CPR and AED (Level C). Recognition and first-aid treatment for head and spine injuries, shock, burns, bleeding, seizures, broken bones, anaphylactic shock, small wound management, poisoning, heat exhaustion and heat stroke will also be addressed. Participants spend the majority of the course doing hands on first-aid, and participating in first-aid scenarios. By practicing with scenarios students gain confidence, learn to improvise, and react in emergency situations. This course meets Child Licensing guidelines.

Presenter: Austin Crystal has been a Canadian Red Cross instructor since 2016.

Date: Saturday, January 9, 2021

Time: 8:30 am - 4:30 pm

Cost: $100

Location: Archway Community Services; Jasbir Saran Room (B100)

YOGA AND MINDFULNESS FOR SELF-REGULATION - ONLINE

Yoga and Mindfulness for Self-Regulation is a 90 minute interactive virtual experience sharing yoga and mindfulness tools and techniques for the classroom. Children's yoga helps to develop essential tools such as self-regulation, a stronger mind-body connection, and introduces skills that help children to find a sense of inner-calm. These yoga tools are gifts that can transform the lives of the children that receive them. Each participant will receive a pdf of the Harmony Kids Yoga Guide for Educators with exercises and applications for classroom use.

The workshop also meets a variety of core competencies including:

- Thinking (including Creative Thinking and Critical & Reflective Thinking);
- Communication (including Communicating and Collaborating);
- Personal & Social (including Personal Awareness & Responsibility, Positive Personal & Cultural Identity and Social Awareness & Responsibility)

Presenter: Jennie Abbot is the founder and director of Harmony Kids Yoga, bringing yoga and mindfulness to over ten thousand children to date, between the ages of 1 to 18 years throughout the lower mainland. Jennie is a Registered Yoga Teacher (CYA-RYT200), Registered Children's Yoga Teacher (CYA-CYT), and is trained in Color Me Yoga for Children, Rainbow Kids Yoga for Children, Trauma Informed Yoga for Children and Youth and offers 95 Hour Registered Yoga Teacher Training through the International Yoga Alliance.

MOVING BEYOND “TOLERANCE AND INCLUSION” TO “ANTI-BIASED AND ANTI-RACIST” APPROACHES IN EARLY YEARS - ONLINE

In this workshop participants will think about bias and racism in an open, safe, and nonjudgmental way. Participants will be asked to think about the words ‘tolerance,’ and ‘inclusion.’ What do these words mean, where do they come from? Who do they privilege and who do they marginalize? Through this open dialogue the hope is that participants begin to move past uncomfortable feelings to think about how they can continue conversations to support anti-biased and anti-racist approaches in ways that are meaningful.

Presenters: Ana Valle Rivera works as a contract Instructor and Facilitator. She is a parent and children's book author. Ana is completing a degree in child and youth care at the University of Victoria.

ABC'S OF CHILDHOOD MENTAL HEALTH - ONLINE

The ABCs of Childhood Mental Health: Mental health has taken a central place in the minds of parents, caregivers, educators and other “big people” due to the significant number of children who are struggling. This workshop will explore the reasons for this struggle, the way mental health challenges typically present in children, and most importantly, what can be done to support children towards healthy development and actualizing their fullest potential.”

Instructor: Dr. Vanessa Lapointe is a mom, registered psychologist, parenting educator, best-selling author, international speaker, and a regularly invited media guest. Founder and director of The Wishing Star Lapointe Developmental Clinic, she has been supporting families and children for almost 20 years, and has previous experience in community mental health and the school system. She is also a connoisseur of all things to do with stunning footwear. While navigating the journey of parenting her own two children, including the restructuring of her family through divorce, Dr. Vanessa has been challenged to grow herself up. Rather than hiding behind the glossy façade, she acknowledges how much she is in the muck of it just like everyone else. From this awakened place she journeys along on a path that lands for herself and her family, all of which has profoundly changed her life and is a significant influence on her speaking and practice.

PRECIPITATION EDUCATION: PRACTICAL IDEAS FOR EMBRACING THE RAIN WITH CHILDREN - ONLINE

Wanting to feel more excited about learning and playing outside during the rainy months? Join us for a lighthearted and practical conversation about the opportunities, challenges, and logistics about programming in wet, cold, and soggy situations. We'll talk about how to shift mindsets about the rain, how to dress to stay warm and dry, play invitations involving puddles, potential inquiry studies that may emerge when being in the rain, and more.

Presenter: Karen Begley supports and empowers educators to feel fantastic about the work they are already doing by making connections between their underlying values, everyday programming, and pedagogical theory. Her playful style makes for interactive workshops that generate new ideas and increase participants' confidence and competency to bring practical and enriching experiences to the children in their care.

TAKE IT OUTSIDE! INTEGRATING LITERACY AND NATURE (ADAPTED ONLINE VERSION)

Young children are innately connected to the natural world but require opportunities to develop this connection. Using children's books that focus on the outdoors, participants will discover ways of extending the story, focusing on inquiry based learning while enhancing children's language and literacy skills. Extension ideas presented will include hands on learning using natural loose parts, environmental rhyme and sensory circles, oral storytelling relating to nature, and developmentally appropriate risky play opportunities. This workshop is geared towards those working with children in the early years and the ultimate goal is to provide information, tools and resources for participants to then share in their own early learning environments. Book lists and supporting resources will be shared by email.

Presenters: Nancy Tovell is a Program Coordinator at Bookmates and has a wide range of experience in facilitating workshops with a focus on sharing strategies, tools and resources to support those working with families and young children. As the mother to two girls, she believes in the importance of fostering a connection to nature by tasting the earth and playing in the rain.

INDIGENOUS WORLD VIEW IN EARLY CHILDHOOD SETTINGS - ONLINE

How do you make a community that understands and realizes the importance of creating an environment that shares the worldview of Indigenous people in your centres? Indigenous world view is more than a day, more than a book or drums in a childcare centre. It is a centre that brings in Elders and Knowledge Keepers to share real stories, real memories of days gone past. Indigenous world view encompasses land, air, seas and all life. Do you know the territory you are on? Do the children know what community they come from? Do you learn from them what they know about being an Indigenous person? Do they feel pride? If they do not feel pride, how do you make them feel proud? We will explore ways to increase your ability to do this in this workshop. You will hear some stories of the places and the territories in which you live.

Presenter: Jennie Roberts, Provincial Aboriginal Child Care Advisor.

CONNECTIONS IN NATURE FOR ALL CHILDREN - ONLINE

Developing a connection with nature is an integral piece of childhood. Through interactions with the natural world, children develop a sense of wonder, calm, joy, and fascination. In this interactive session, we explore place-based learning with children of all ages. We discuss ways of moving past challenges, engaging stakeholders, and exploring simple and meaningful open-ended play ideas and learning invitations that bring children outside and bring nature in. Participants will leave with a nature play idea kit filled with strategies and inspiration, including ideas that require little to no preparation or materials and ideas that include Aboriginal perspectives and understandings.

Presenter: Karen Begley supports and empowers educators to feel fantastic about the work they are already doing by making connections between their underlying values, everyday programming, and pedagogical theory. Her playful style makes for interactive workshops that generate new ideas and increase participants' confidence and competency to bring practical and enriching experiences to the children in their care.

EMOTIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND REGULATION - ONLINE

Learning to recognize, express and manage our feelings is what emotional development is all about. This learning takes place at different stages of our life and our emotional maturity is largely determined by our relationships with our caregivers and peers. Let's see how emotions develop in our bodies and how our mind learns to interpret, label and integrate them in our experiences.

Presenter: Pam Collins is the very proud parent of two very different thinking young adult sons! She is also a Neurodiversity/Autism Consultant/Parent Educator for Reach Child and Youth Development Society. She is a recognized educational speaker for families and teaching staff of exceptional children. She is a co-founder of the Richmond Autism Interagency Committee – a group dedicated to increasing opportunities for people with autism to be accepted and celebrated in their communities.

NURTURING THE NATURAL ROOTS OF SELF-ESTEEM - ONLINE

Self-esteem has become a popular concept, with varying ideas on how to cultivate it in our children. There are two main strategies used to develop self-esteem, one built on shaky grounds and another that is more sustaining and enduring. The developmental roots of natural self-esteem will be discussed, along with strategies for providing for its growth. Parents are ideally positioned to nurture an intrinsic sense of self worth in their child which will help grow them into their full human potential.

Presenter: Dr. Deborah MacNamara is a Clinical Counsellor and the author of Rest, Play, Grow: Making Sense of Preschoolers (or anyone who acts like one), and a children's picture book, The Sorry Plane. She is on the Faculty at the Neufeld Institute. For more information see www.macnamara.ca
