SENSORY PROCESSING

Sensory Processing outlines in detail what it means to be "hypersensitive" and "hyposensitive" in terms of sensory processing, functioning, and regulation. We explore the core causes of these struggles, and how as educators we can best accommodate them within our physical classroom environment. We will cover explicit strategies to determine areas of struggle for children in our care, and create actionable plans with simple strategies to make our space more inclusive.

Presenter: Monica Maddison has served neurodiverse children (and their families) for over a decade. This experience ranges from one to one support, therapy, behaviour consulting, classroom advocacy, and inclusion planning. Monica is a college instructor and speaker - educating adults in how to care for children through a neurodiversity confirming, intentional, and inclusive practice.

Date: Tuesday September 13, 2022 Time: 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm Cost: Members $10, Non-members $15 Location: Online via Zoom

WHEN WE UNDERSTAND WHY AND HOW BEHAVIOURS OCCUR, WE CAN TRULY MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Understanding and respecting child development will be the foundation on the workshop. We have the tendency to have expectations that children should not have challenging behaviour. Challenging behaviour is an invitation for us to look at the child from their lens and perspective. Our environments can support or stress a child. During the workshop we will explore ways that we can support children.

Presenter: Paula Milbradt is an inclusion coach who supports educators with enhancing their environments and connections with children, by supporting social and emotional brain development. She has been in the Early Childhood sector for over 28 years and is passionate about encouraging humans to unite and connect on a deeper level. Paula has worked with all ages of children, including 4 boys in their adolescent years. She is humbled to offer her perspective with you.

Date: Saturday September 17, 2022 Time: 9:00 am - 11:30 am Cost: Members $10, Non-members $15 Location: Online via Zoom

Workshop 3

POSITIVE APPROACH TO GUIDANCE

This workshop will explore ways to guide children's behaviour in a positive way. The educators will learn about self-regulation, reflective behaviour and relationship building. We will also discuss the underlying factors that affect children's emotional health and cause behaviour issues. We will talk about creating a child centered curriculum and environment to manage these issues. We will also discuss effective conflict resolution.

Presenter: Pooja Kalsi has a Master's degree in Early Childhood Education from State University of New York. She has 23 years of experience in the Early Childhood field as a teacher, facilitator, supervisor, director and instructor. She is very passionate about finding ways to promote children's creativity and expression of discovery. She is currently teaching at Langara College in the ECE department. She is a mother of two children and believes that she continues to learn from the world around her.

QUALITY SLEEP IN GROUP CHILD CARE SETTING: I/T FOCUSED

Recent social change has resulted in a greater demand for group child care for infants and toddlers. Simultaneously, sleep issues at group child care centres have become more and more prevalent among this age group – who are the most sensitive and vulnerable. The goal of this workshop is to prepare ECEs with the appropriate knowledge, skills, and attitudes as it relates to young children's sleep in group child care settings. This workshop is based on a behavioural approach.

Presenter: Dr. Minnie Mossop is a passionate infant and toddler specialist with a Ph.D. and MA in Infant and Early Childhood Development and an M.Ed. in Early Childhood Education. Her research interests cover various mental health areas (e.g., attachment, brain development, co-regulation) of young children, especially infants and toddlers. She is a faculty member of the Early Childhood Education Program at Douglas College. She has also supported hundreds of families and ECEs in North America through online/offline consultations and group workshops.

MARKETING YOUR CHILD CARE BUSINESS

This workshop will teach you the basics of managing and marketing as well as using the Internet and social media to help you maximize enrolment and income for your business. As child care providers, the notion of marketing ourselves or our child care seems often makes us feel uncomfortable. Somehow advertising seems out of step with the work we do. The fact is, however, that the ability to market our child care service in tasteful and effective ways is one indicator of a professional child care provider. This workshop teaches providers how to identify, articulate, and sell the benefits of their child care program to potential clients using both traditional strategies and technology. Parents are using the Internet to find child care providers. This workshop is for a person that wants to understand how to fit all the pieces together.

Presenter: Vicki Lepper was providing licensed family child care in Coquitlam from 1989 to 2018. She is a passionate child care advocate and has received many awards. Vicki presents many workshops and believes in sharing her knowledge with those who have chosen a career working with children.

Workshop 15

WALKING TOGETHER: MEANINGFUL ENGAGEMENT IN TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

Many Canadians are only beginning to learn of Canada's colonial history and its impacts on Indigenous people. How do we work towards Reconciliation? We must begin by recognizing and acknowledging the Truth. We will cover the true history from first contact to present day and explore the impacts it has had on multiple generations through discussions about trauma and its transmission through generations by epigenetics. We will support reflection and understanding of your own social location and relationship with privilege and power. Skills for engaging respectfully with Indigenous clients, families and communities will be explored through understanding historical trauma and key differences in worldview. Experiential exercises will assist you in integrating your learning on mental, emotional, physical and spiritual levels.

Presenter: Katelyn Moon and Karla Joseph are partners in advancing Truth and Reconciliation by engaging all people in open and honest conversations about Canada's colonial past, reconciliation, power and privilege. Karla is of St'át'imc and German decent and is a member of Xwisten/Bridge River Indian Band. Karla has a MSW in Indigenous Trauma and Resiliency from the University of Toronto. Katelyn Moon is a White Settler who has education and experience in ECE and Health Leadership.
